Reporting Standard SRS 730.0

ABS Income and Expenditure

Objective of this Reporting Standard

This Reporting Standard sets out the requirements for the provision of information to APRA relating to the income and expenditure of a registrable superannuation entity for the purposes of the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

It includes Form SRF 730.0 ABS Income and Expenditure and associated specific instructions.

Authority

1. This Reporting Standard is made under section 13 of the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001.

Purpose

2. Information collected in Form SRF 730.0 ABS Income and Expenditure (SRF 730.0) is used by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) for compilation of the Australian National Accounts and other publications. It may also be used by APRA for the purposes of prudential supervision and publication.

Application and commencement

3. This Reporting Standard applies to each registrable superannuation entity (RSE) licensee (RSE licensee) in respect of each relevant RSE within its business operations.¹

4. For the purposes of this Reporting Standard, a ‘relevant RSE’ is an RSE, defined benefit RSE, pooled superannuation trust (PST) or eligible rollover fund (ERF) that had total assets equal to or greater than $200 million at the end of the most recent complete year of income at the time of reporting.

¹ For the purposes of this Reporting Standard, an ‘RSE licensee’s business operations’ includes all activities as an RSE licensee (including the activities of each RSE of which it is the licensee), and all other activities of the RSE licensee to the extent that they are relevant to, or may impact on, its activities as an RSE licensee. For the avoidance of doubt, if the RSE licensee is trustee of more than one relevant RSE, the RSE licensee must separately provide the information required by the form for each relevant RSE within its business operations.
5. This Reporting Standard applies for reporting periods ending on or after 1 January 2016.

Information required

6. An RSE licensee to which this Reporting Standard applies must provide APRA with the information required by SRF 730.0 in respect of each reporting period.

Forms and method of submission

7. The information required by this Reporting Standard must be given to APRA in electronic format using the ‘Direct to APRA’ application or, where ‘Direct to APRA’ is not available, by a method notified by APRA, in writing, prior to submission.

Note: the ‘Direct to APRA’ application software (also known as ‘D2A’) may be obtained from APRA.

Reporting periods and due dates

8. Subject to paragraph 9, an RSE licensee to which this Reporting Standard applies must provide the information required by this Reporting Standard in respect of each relevant RSE for each calendar year ending 30 June.

9. If, having regard to the particular circumstances of a relevant RSE, APRA considers it necessary or desirable to obtain information more or less frequently than as provided by paragraph 8, APRA may, by notice in writing, change the reporting periods for the particular relevant RSE.

10. The information required by this Reporting Standard must be provided to APRA:

   (a) in the case of annual information – within 3 months after the end of the year to which the information relates; and

   (b) in the case of information provided in accordance with paragraph 9, within the time specified by notice in writing.

11. APRA may grant, in writing, an RSE licensee an extension of a due date with respect to one or more relevant RSEs within its business operations, in which case the new due date for the provision of the information will be the date on the notice of extension.

Quality control

12. All information provided by an RSE licensee under this Reporting Standard must be subject to systems, processes and controls developed by the RSE licensee for the internal review and authorisation of that information. It is the responsibility of the Board and senior management of the RSE licensee to ensure that an appropriate set of policies and procedures for the authorisation of information submitted to APRA is in place.

2 For the avoidance of doubt, if the due date for a particular reporting period falls on a day other than a usual business day, an RSE licensee is nonetheless required to submit the information required no later than the due date.
13. The information provided by an RSE licensee under this Reporting Standard is not required to be audited or tested by the RSE auditor of the relevant RSE to which the information relates.

Authorisation

14. When an officer or agent of an RSE licensee provides the information required by this Reporting Standard using the ‘Direct to APRA’ software, it will be necessary for the officer or agent to digitally sign the relevant information using a digital certificate acceptable to APRA.

15. If the information required by this Reporting Standard is provided by an agent who submits using the ‘Direct to APRA’ software on the RSE licensee’s behalf, the RSE licensee must:

(a) obtain from the agent a copy of the completed form with the information provided to APRA; and

(b) retain the completed copy.

16. An officer or agent of an RSE licensee who submits the information under this Reporting Standard for, on behalf of, the RSE licensee must be authorised by either:

(a) the Chief Executive Officer of the RSE licensee; or

(b) the Chief Financial Officer of the RSE licensee.

Variations

17. APRA may, by written notice to an RSE licensee, vary the reporting requirements of SRF 730.0 in relation to that RSE licensee or one or more relevant RSEs within that RSE licensee’s business operations.

Interpretation

18. In this Reporting Standard:

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority established under the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998;

Chief Executive Officer means the chief executive officer of the RSE licensee, by whatever name called, and whether or not he or she is a member of the Board of the RSE licensee;

Chief Financial Officer means the chief financial officer of the RSE licensee, by whatever name called;

defined benefit RSE means an RSE that is a defined benefit fund within the meaning given in Prudential Standard SPS 160 Defined Benefit Matters;

due date means the relevant date under paragraph 10 or, if applicable, paragraph 11;

Refer to Prudential Standard SPS 510 Governance.
eligible rollover fund (ERF) has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act;

pooled superannuation trust (PST) has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act;

reporting period means a period mentioned in paragraph 8 or, if applicable, paragraph 9;

RSE means a registrable superannuation entity as defined in section 10(1) of the SIS Act that is not a defined benefit RSE, PST, ERF, small APRA fund or single member approved deposit fund⁴;

RSE auditor means an auditor appointed by the RSE licensee to perform functions under this Reporting Standard;

RSE licensee has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act;

SIS Act means Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993; and year of income has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act.

⁴ For the purposes of this Reporting Standard, ‘small APRA fund’ means a superannuation entity that is a regulated superannuation fund, within the meaning of the SIS Act, which has fewer than five members and ‘single member approved deposit fund’ means a superannuation entity that is an approved deposit fund, within the meaning of the SIS Act, and has only one member.

Reporting Form SRF 730.0

ABS Income and Expenditure

Instructions

These instructions assist completion of Reporting Form SRF 730.0 ABS Income and Expenditure (SRF 730.0). SRF 730.0 collects information on income and expenditure of a registrable superannuation entity (RSE). Information reported in SRF 730.0 is required primarily for the purposes of the Australian Bureau of Statistics and may be used by APRA for prudential and publication purposes.

Reporting level

SRF 730.0 must be completed for each relevant RSE.\(^1\)

Reporting basis and unit of measurement

Report all items on SRF 730.0 in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards unless otherwise specified.

Items on SRF 730.0 must be reported on an annual basis for each year ending 30 June. Report information with respect to transactions that occurred during that year alone.

Items on SRF 730.0 are to be reported as thousands of dollars. Values are to be rounded up or down to the nearest thousand dollars.

Items on SRF 730.0 are to be reported as careful estimates where exact values are not available to the RSE licensee. Report items on SRF 730.0 as blank where the item is nil. Refer to specific instructions for further detail on time of recording.

Items on SRF 730.0 are to be reported on a gross basis except where otherwise indicated.

Items on SRF 730.0 are to be reported on a non-look-through basis, except in respect of exclusively-held internal trusts or wholly-owned investment (non-trading) subsidiaries. For the purposes of these instructions, ‘look-through basis’ means the reporting of information about the underlying investments in an investment vehicle.

Report derivatives distinct from the corresponding contract that is being hedged. Do not use hedge accounting on SRF 730.0.

Specific instructions

Terms highlighted in bold italics indicate that the definition is provided in these instructions. Additional definitions are provided at the end of these instructions.

\(^1\) For the purposes of these instructions, a ‘relevant RSE’ is an RSE, defined benefit RSE, pooled superannuation trust (PST) or eligible rollover fund (ERF) that had total assets equal to or greater than $200 million at the end of the most recent complete year of income at the time of reporting.
Examples listed under ‘Include’ and ‘Exclude’ are not to be taken as an exhaustive list of items to be included or excluded.

Member flows

Items 1 to 2 inclusive collect the members’ benefits flows in and out of an RSE including contributions, rollovers, successor fund transfers, repatriations to employer sponsors and benefit payments.

Report contributions gross of contributions tax and any other tax and do not deduct: entry fees; deferred entry fee; commissions; management fees or any other ongoing fees or charges.

Income

Items 3 to 8 inclusive collect the income arising from superannuation activities of the RSE related to investments, administration and operations.

Report gains as positive amounts and losses as negative amounts. Report income gross of any related expenses i.e. do not net investment expenses against investment income.
Item 3 | Report income of the RSE in column 1.
| Report income of the RSE that is: attributed to defined benefit members in column 2 and attributed to non-resident members in column 3.
| Item 3.5 is a derived item. Report total investment income as the sum of interest revenue reported in item 3.1, dividend revenue reported in item 3.2, rental income reported in item 3.3 and trust distributions reported in item 3.4. Report investment income related to derivative financial instruments in item 5.
| Item 3.7 is a derived item. Report investment income after impairment expense in item 3.7 as total investment income reported in item 3.5 minus impairment expense reported in item 3.6.

Investment income | Represents gross revenue in the form of income or distributions from investments.
| Includes: interest, dividends, rental income, trust distributions.

Interest revenue | Represents gross revenue in the form of interest.

Dividend revenue | Represents gross revenue in the form of dividends.

Rental income | Represents gross revenue in the form of rental income from property investments.

Trust distributions | Represents gross revenue in the form of trust distributions.

Impairment expense | Represents the change in the cumulative provision for impairment charges, relating to total investment income. An impairment loss is the amount by which the carrying amount of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount i.e. represents the portion of total investment income/distributions that the RSE no longer considers probable to collect.

Item 4 | Item 4.3 is a derived item. Report total gains/losses on investments in item 4.3 as the sum of unrealised gains/losses reported in item 4.1 and realised gains/losses reported in item 4.2.
| Report the portion of total gains/losses on investments in item 4.3 that is foreign exchange gains/losses in item 4.3.1. Report the portion of foreign exchange gains/losses in item 4.3.1 that is attributable to physical foreign exchange gains/losses in item 4.3.1.1 and attributable to derivative foreign exchange losses in item 4.3.1.2.

Unrealised gains/losses | Represents changes in the value of investments as a result of re-measurement changes in the market value of investments.
| Includes: impairment charges and provisions.

Glossary of additional terms

Core principles

The macroeconomic statistics produced by the ABS centre around the internationally accepted key standard, the System of National Accounts (SNA) 2008. SNA provides an overarching national accounting framework that is integrated, coherent and maximises international comparability.

Under the SNA, financial statistics are presented in a flow of funds or so-called from-whom-to-whom format to measure the “stocks” and “flows” of financial assets and liabilities throughout the Australian economy and with the rest of the world. A flow of funds concept is designed to delineate both parties to a transaction, as well as the nature of the financial instrument transacted. This concept also underpins the classification schema used in this form.

Residency

An institutional unit is resident in one and only one economic territory. In general, the residence of an institutional unit is determined by the unit’s centre of predominant economic interest.

Individual members of households who leave the economic territory of a country and return after a limited period (less than one year) continue to be regarded as residents of that country.

For example, a member of a resident Australian household who travels abroad for recreation, business, health or other purposes andreturns within one year is treated while abroad as a resident of Australia. An exception to the one year rule is made in the case of students, who are treated as residents of the country where they had been prior to studying. If a student develops the intention to remain in the country after completion of studies, they are counted as a resident of that country.

The residence of a financial instrument is determined by the residence of the issuer rather than the domicile of the financial instrument itself. For example, holdings of bonds issued by a non-resident into the Australian Market would be recorded as non-resident asset. Conversely holdings of bonds issued internationally by an Australian resident would be recorded as a resident asset by an Australian registrable superannuation entity.

| Non-resident | Represents any individual, enterprise or other organisation ordinarily domiciled in a country other than Australia.
Includes: foreign branches and foreign subsidiaries of Australian enterprises.
Excludes: Australian-based branches and subsidiaries of foreign businesses. |
| Australian resident | Represents any individual, enterprise or other organisation ordinarily domiciled in Australia’s economic territory.
Includes: Australian registered branches and incorporated subsidiaries of foreign enterprises. |

Domicile type

Represents the jurisdiction in which a financial instrument is constituted. For ABS purposes, debt liabilities are classified as either Australian domicile or international domicile. For debt securities, this refers to whether a debt security is issued in Australia or abroad. For deposits, it refers to the residence of the institution accepting the deposit. For loans it refers to the residence of the institution providing the loan.

Therefore, deposits taken by Australian institutions are classified as debt - Australia domicile, and loan liabilities to the rest of the world as debt - international domicile.

The domicile of a financial instrument does not determine residency. Kangaroo bonds are domiciled in Australia but the issuer is a non-resident. Therefore, holdings of Kangaroo bonds are considered a claim against a non-resident.

| Australian domicile | Represents investments issued in Australia. |
| International domicile | Represents investments issued outside Australia. |

Ownership

Two types of ownership are distinguished in national accounting, legal ownership and economic ownership. The legal owner of assets and liabilities is the institutional unit entitled in law and sustainable under the law to claim the benefits embodied in the value of the assets.
and liabilities. The economic owner of products is the institutional unit entitled to claim the benefits associated with the use of assets or liabilities in question in the course of an economic activity by virtue of accepting the associated risks.

Every product has both a legal owner and an economic owner, though in many cases they are the same. Where they are not, the legal owner has handed responsibility for the risk involved in using the assets or liabilities in an economic activity to the economic owner along with associated benefits. In return the legal owner accepts another package of risks and benefits from the economic owner. In general within the SNA, when the expression “ownership” or “owner” is used and the legal and economic owners are different, the reference should be understood to be to the economic owner.

In the case of unitised investments investors acquiring units in a trust spread their exposure across all the instruments in that trust. However, the unit holders cannot claim that they directly hold those underlying instruments as they do not directly claim the benefits (incomes and realised or unrealised gains on the trust assets) associated with the holdings of the trust. Instead they must await distributions, or sell their units to claim any benefits. Unit holders hence are not the economic owners of underlying assets but the economic owners of the trust while trustee of the trust remains the legal owner. Unit holders hold an equity position (units) in the trust and would report units in trusts as the primary financial instrument.

Institutional units and sectoral classifications

In national accounting, institutional sectors are intrinsically different from each other in that their economic objectives, functions and behaviour are different. Institutional units are allocated to a sector according to the nature of the economic activities they undertake.

Institutional sectors and associated classifications used in the ABS financial statistics are described in Standard Economic Sector Classifications of Australia (SESCA) (cat. no. 1218.0). The classifications included in SESCA are based on international standards, adapted to suit Australian situations where appropriate. In the design of this form; however, using of the SESCA terminologies has been intentionally avoided to maximise interpretability.

Interpretation

For the purposes of these instructions:

- acquired insurance means insured benefits provided to beneficiaries where the RSE licensee acquires the insurance from an insurer (refer to Prudential Standard SPS 250 Insurance in Superannuation (SPS 250));

- defined benefit RSE means an RSE that is a defined benefit fund within the meaning given in Prudential Standard SPS 160 Defined Benefit Matters;

- eligible rollover fund (ERF) has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act;

- pooled superannuation trust (PST) has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act;
- RSE means a registrable superannuation entity as defined in section 10(1) of the SIS Act that is not a defined benefit RSE, PST, ERF, small APRA fund or single member approved deposit fund;

- RSE licensee has the meaning given in section 10(1) of the SIS Act;

- self-insurance arrangements has the meaning given in the SIS Regulations and SPS 250;

- SGAA means Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992;

- SIS Act means Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993; and

- SIS Regulations means Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994.

2 For the purposes of these instructions, ‘small APRA fund’ means a superannuation entity that is a regulated superannuation fund, within the meaning of the SIS Act, which has fewer than five members and ‘single member approved deposit fund’ means a superannuation entity that is an approved deposit fund, within the meaning of the SIS Act, and has only one member.
