In this Notice

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

ADI is short for authorised deposit-taking institution and has the meaning given in subsection 5(1) of the Act.

banking business has the meaning given in subsection 5(1) of the Act.

Note 1 Under subsection 9(4) of the Act, APRA may at any time, by notice in writing served on an ADI, impose conditions or additional conditions or vary or revoke conditions imposed on its Authority to conduct banking business. The conditions must relate to prudential matters.

Note 2 Under subsection 9(6) of the Act, an ADI is guilty of an offence if it does or fails to do an act and doing or failing to do that act results in a contravention of a condition of its Authority, and there is no order in force under section 11 of the Act determining that subsection 9(6) does not apply to the ADI. The maximum penalty is 200 penalty units or, by virtue of subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914, in the case of a body corporate, a penalty not exceeding 1,000 penalty units. By virtue of subsection 9(6A) of the Act, an offence against subsection 9(6) is an indictable offence. Under subsection 9(6B) of the Act, if an ADI commits an offence against subsection 9(6), the ADI is guilty of an offence against that subsection in respect of the first day on which the offence is committed and each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note 3 The circumstances in which APRA may revoke an ADI's Authority are set out in section 9A of the Act.

Note 4 Under subsection 9(7) of the Act, APRA must publish a copy of this Notice in the Gazette and may cause notice of the action taken to vary the conditions imposed on the Authority to be published in any other way it considers appropriate.

The manner in which the conditions are to be varied:

B. The Company may only conduct the business of:

- i. trade finance related financial working capital and term finance to Australian resident and offshore corporates and institutions;
