

Reporting Form GRF 800.1

Policy Data: Public and Product Liability and Professional Indemnity Insurance

Instruction Guide

These instructions have been prepared for the purpose of defining the policy information required to be submitted by insurers in respect of public and product liability and professional indemnity insurance. This information will contribute to a National Claims and Policy Database (NCPD) in respect of these classes of insurance. The intention is to create a database that holds information in respect of claims and policies for public and product liability and professional indemnity on a national basis. State and Territory Government insurers will also contribute to the NCPD where possible.¹

Details of requirements in relation to reporting periods, method of submission and authorisation are set out in the Reporting Standard. The data submitted by each insurer will be validated by APRA at each reporting period. The data validation to be performed is outlined in Appendix C.

¹ State and Territory insurers are not required to comply with Reporting Standard GRS 800.1, however will provide information in accordance with this Reporting Form GRF 800.1 where possible.

policy is for a term other than twelve (12) months, pro-rate the premium to a 12month period.

Note that the premium for “short term events” cover should not be annualised. “Short Term Events” are defined as those that cover a specific period that is less than one month e.g. a sporting event over a long weekend or an annual festival.

Where a number of risks are reported separately, only the premium associated with that risk should be reported.

Note that this is NOT the gross written premium – it is the rate of premium for a full 12 months cover based on the rating factors that apply to the policy at the effective start date (field 12).

For the principle policy, the GAP must be reported in each and every reporting period, i.e. the original GAP amount will be reported each time the record is reported.

For an endorsement, the incremental change in GAP should be reported. For example, if the original policy was an annualised $1,000, and an endorsement to the policy increased the total premium (from inception) by $100, to $1,100, then $100 should be reported as the GAP on the endorsement record.

For a cancellation, the reported GAP amount will be the annualised amount (if any) refunded to the policy holder, stated as a negative. Negative numbers should be reported with a minus sign '-'.

Where records are aggregated due to duplication of the unique record key, the GAP must be the combined value of the GAP for all of the aggregated records.

In some cases (particularly endorsements) it would not be unusual to have a zero annualised premium.

Leap years are taken into account when calculating GEP (policy item 15b) from GAP (policy item 15a) and then validating that result back to GWP (policy item 16).

15b. Gross Earned Premium (GEP)

In this field, insert (your co-insured share of) the earned amount of gross annual premium for the exposure of this policy during the reporting period (in whole $, no decimal points) between the effective start date (field 12) and effective end date (field 14). Include the same components as for gross annualised premium.

Where a number of risks are reported separately, only the premium associated with that risk should be reported.

For endorsements and cancellations, the GEP should still be the earned amount of gross annual premium for the exposure of this endorsement or cancellation during the reporting period (in whole $, no decimal points) between the effective start date of the endorsement or cancellation (field 12) and effective end date of the endorsement or cancellation (field 14).

For an endorsement, the GEP will recognise the value of the premium earned on the endorsement for the relevant reporting period. For example, if the written premium on the endorsement was an incremental increase of $200, the GEP reported for the endorsement would represent the premium earned during the reporting period in respect of the incremental $200 written.

Negative numbers should be reported with a minus sign '-'.

Where records are aggregated due to duplication of the unique record key, the GEP must be the combined value of the GEP for all of the aggregated records.

16. Gross Written Premium (GWP)

In this field insert (your co-insured share of) the gross written premium for the exposure of this policy. Exclude all statutory charges (Stamp Duty, GST, and also exclude Fire Service Levies) but include others costs (such as commissions and instalment charges).

Where a number of risks are reported separately, only the premium associated with that risk should be reported.

For endorsements and cancellations, the incremental change in GWP should be stated.

For the principle policy, the GWP must be reported in each and every reporting period, i.e. the original GWP amount will be reported each time the record is reported.

For an endorsement, the incremental change in GWP should be reported. For example, if the original policy was for $1,000, and an endorsement to the policy increased the total premium by $200, to $1,200, then $200 should be reported as the GWP on the endorsement record.

For a cancellation, the reported GWP amount will be the amount (if any) refunded to the policy holder, stated as a negative amount. Negative numbers should be reported with a minus sign '-'.

Where records are aggregated due to duplication of the unique record key, the GWP must be the combined value of the GWP for all of the aggregated records.

17. Risk Factor (This field is not used)

Risk factor is a measure of the relative exposure that the policy represents. This should be the total value of the organisation, not the insurer's share of risk (but see note on policy field item 23 below).

All fields from 17a to 17e must be provided with either a blank or a value based on the definitions below. At least one of the fields must contain a value and if 17e contains a value then 17f must provide a brief description. Each field may be reported in whole dollars or as a band. If you report fields in bands, show the range of the band in whole dollars e.g. if turnover is up to $5 million, enter "1-5000000", if between $20 million and $50 million, "20000001-50000000". Commas must be excluded from all numbers.

17a. Turnover

Most recently declared annual turnover represented by this risk record.

17b. Total Assets

Most recent prior year business assets represented by this risk record.

17c. Professional Fees

Most recent prior year annual professional fees represented by this risk record.

17d. Total number of staff

Most recent prior year number of full-time equivalent staff members employed in the insured business or practice, whether or not members of a profession.

17e. Other

If any of 17a, 17b, 17c or 17d contains a value, then this field must be blank. However if none is applicable then this field must contain a value and a brief description of the risk factor must be provided in field 17f.

17f. Other Description

If 17e contains a value, this field must contain a brief description of the risk factor of the value provided in field 17e.

18. State [Required for professional risk]

For professional risks, this should be the state (ACT, NSW, NT, QLD, SA, TAS, VIC and WA) where work is done; if multi-state cover is provided, include the state where the majority of work is done. For EPL and D&O, provide the state where the head office is located. This would be expected to be sourced from data for stamp duty split purpose.

Where this information is not available for public and products liability, enter a hyphen (“-”).

19. Postcode [Required for public and products liability]

Enter the Postcode of the location of the principal risk. If not available, enter the postcode of the head office or the postal address of the policyholder.

Where this information is not available for professional risk, enter a hyphen (“-”).

20. Excess/Deductible/Attachment Point

How much of any claim that an insured must bear before the insurer becomes liable (in whole dollars). Where different levels exist for different causes of claim, enter the excess that is most commonly applied for such policies, or where that is not available, the minimum applied.

For Liability XOL policies, the attachment point should be reported.

21. Limit of Indemnity

Insert your (share of the) limit of indemnity in whole dollars disregarding any excess payments by the insured.

22. Nature of Insured Organisation/Occupation

For Public and Products Liability, EPL and D&O risks, use the principal classification of the business from the latest edition of Catalogue Number 1292.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC), published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics and available on their web site. Provide data at the 4digit ANZSIC code level. Any reports or publications will be aggregated to the 2 digit level ANZSIC.

Residential strata owners' liability is collected under ANZSIC classification 7711- Residential Property Operators, whereas for Commercial Property Operators it is either 7712 or the occupation code that is most closely aligned with the tenancy of the strata.

For Professional Risks (excl EPL and D&O), use the codes provided in Attachment B except for code "OMULTI" which is only for use for facility business. Where an appropriate code does not exist for the insured organisation, the first character of the appropriate industry may be used.

23. Coinsurance Proportion

Your proportion of a co-insured risk, to 2 decimal places (e.g. 66.66 for 66.66%, or 100.00 for 100%). Advise APRA of how you record (a) turnover (b) limit of indemnity (c) premium (d) losses – 100% of the risk or just your share. The preferred form of data submission is indicated under each individual data field in this specification.

The expected value in this field is 100.00 if no coinsurance applies to the policy.

Appendix A: Example Treatment of Exposure Records

Insurers are to provide an initial record for each policy/risk at the start of each period with additional records each time that policy/risk changes in any way in terms of its exposure. The following sets out the expected relationship between Gross Annualised Premium and Gross Earned Premium for your information.

Note: Start date = Term Inception Date (field 11)

Date exp from = Effective Start Date (field 12)

End date = Term Expiry Date (field 13)

Date exp to = Effective End Date (field 14)

GAP = Gross Annualised Premium (field 15a), NOT written premium. GEP = Earned Premium (field 15b).

Appendix C: Data Validation

As well as unit record validation, overall reasonability checks will be carried out on each insurer's data.

With each half-yearly data submission

Various comparisons between the current reporting period and the previous period will be carried out in order to monitor data reasonability and consistency. These may include:

- Change in the aggregate Gross Earned Premium, split by two digit ANZSIC code or single character occupation code;
- Changes in the total numbers of policies and claims;
- Counts of claims by various measures; causes of loss, severity or litigation status; and
- Changes in the average and total claims paid.

As well, various reasonability checks will be carried out within each period submission, including;

- Overuse of the various 'Other' categories and codes; and
- Comparison of the various premium fields against each other.

Other reasonability checks may be carried out on an ad hoc basis.
