Introduction

This Instruction Guide provides general information on making an application for approval to hold a stake of more than 15 percent in an RSE licensee under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (the SIS Act) using the Application Form – Approval to own or control an RSE licensee (Form RSELCC). It does not constitute legal advice.

For further information, visit APRA website at www.apra.gov.au or contact 1300 55 88 49 or by email at RSELCCForm@apra.gov.au.

Why apply to APRA?

The SIS Act prohibits a person from holding a controlling stake in an RSE licensee unless approval is provided by APRA. An applicant must apply to APRA using Form RSELCC.

What is the application process?

APRA's application process, as with its approach to supervision, is consultative. Each application is assigned a responsible supervisor who is the main contact for all matters related to the application.

Form RSELCC is available on the APRA website. The Applicant will be able to submit a draft application by providing either hard copy or electronic version to enable consultation with APRA prior to making an application for the purposes of s. 29HA of the SIS Act. While there is no legal obligation for APRA to comment on draft applications, APRA will endeavour to provide comments as soon as practicable. The Applicant will have the ability to amend the draft application at any time up until they lodge Form RSELCC in its final version.

Applicants should be aware that APRA may request any additional information it considers necessary to assess the application under s. 29HA of the SIS Act post lodgement of Form RSELCC.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit a draft application and to discuss their proposal with APRA before making an application for the purposes of s. 29HA of the SIS Act.

Applications will be processed within the period permitted under s. 29HC of the SIS Act.

Applicants will be notified in writing of APRA's decision.

Should APRA be inclined to decline an application, it will advise the Applicant of its preliminary view and the reasons for it. The Applicant will have the opportunity to provide reasons why the proposed decision should be reconsidered and this submission will be taken into account in APRA's final decision.

Is there a prescribed fee?

There is no application fee for Applicants seeking to apply for approval to own or control an RSE licensee.

Penalties for false information

Applicants should note that giving false or misleading information is a serious offence (see s. 136.1, s. 137.1 and s. 137.2 of the Criminal Code Act 1995). Where information is disclosed to APRA as part of this application, APRA may in turn disclose that information in any of the circumstances permitted by s. 56 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.
