Reporting Form ARF 550.0

Banking Executive Accountability Regime – Registration Form - Instruction Guide

Introduction

This form is to be used by an authorised deposit-taking institution (ADI) to apply to have a person registered as an accountable person for the purposes of Part IIAA of the Banking Act 1959 (the Act).

The form is also to be used to meet certain notification obligations of an ADI as required under section 37F of the Act, being:

- a change to an accountability statement;
- a change to an accountability map; and
- a person ceasing to be an accountable person.

This form applies to each licensed ADI unless otherwise exempted under section 37A of the Act.

The information required by this form must be given to APRA, preferably using the 'Direct to APRA' application, or by a method (e.g. a web-based solution) notified by APRA, in writing, prior to submission. To simplify processing an ADI will need to provide all existing accountable person information each time the form is submitted.

Note: the Direct to APRA application software (also known as D2A) may be obtained from APRA.

The form is accompanied by instructions to assist ADIs in completing the required information.

Declarations

When submitting this form for the purposes of applying to APRA to register a person not currently registered as an accountable person for the ADI, the ADI must also, in accordance with subsection 37HA(2)(c) of the Act, provide a signed declaration that the ADI is satisfied the person is suitable to be an accountable person. APRA's expectation is that this declaration would be signed by the Chair of the relevant Board Committee, or a person delegated to sign on the Board's behalf.

When submitting this form for the purposes of applying to APRA to register a person as an accountable person, the ADI must also, in accordance with subsection 37HA(2)(d) of the Act, provide the accountability statement for the person. Accountability statements should include a signed acknowledgement by the accountable person that the individual has read, understood and accepted the areas of accountability included in their accountability statement and the obligations of an accountable person under section 37CA of the Act.

Specific instructions

This form must be submitted by an ADI to apply to register an accountable person under section 37HA of the Banking Act 1959 (the Act), and may also be submitted when notifying APRA in accordance with certain notification obligations of an ADI as required under section 37F of the Act. This form is used by the ADI to submit information relating to the ADI and any subsidiaries of the ADI.³

The submission of the form may be accompanied by one or more accountability statements and/or an accountability map. Accountability statements should include a signed acknowledgement by the accountable person that the individual has read, understood and accepted the areas of accountability included in their accountability statement and the obligations of an accountable person under section 37CA of the Act.

APRA must process the application within 14 days of receiving it, unless the ADI withdraws the application during this period or APRA requests further information from the ADI in relation to the application. APRA must process the application within 14 days of receiving additional information requested.

1. Registration of accountable person under section 37HA of the Banking Act 1959 (the Act) and amendment of information or accountability statement for an accountable person.⁴

A person must be registered under subdivision B of Division 6 of Part IIAA of the Act prior to becoming an accountable person.⁵

The information contained in item 1 of this form is required in order for APRA to register, amend or cease a person as an accountable person for an ADI, and to amend an accountability statement of an accountable person. To simplify processing an ADI will need to provide all existing accountable person information, even if there are no amdendments for a particular accountable person, each time the form is submitted;

In some instances, information reported in item 1 will result in amendments to the ADI's accountability map. This is indicated at item 2.

The registration information must be submitted at least 14 days prior to an individual commencing as an accountable person for the ADI.

An ADI must notify APRA of any change to an accountability statement or accountability map within 14 days after the change.

³ Subsidiary has the meaning given in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.

⁴ Item 1 should be completed to apply to APRA to register an accountable person under section 37HA of the Act and to fulfil certain notification obligations. An ADI must notify APRA within 14 days after any change to an accountability statement (section 37F of the Act) and within 14 days after an individual ceases to be an accountable person (subsection 37FC(a) of the Act.

⁵ If a person becomes an accountable person by filling a temporary vacancy or a vacancy that was not foreseen at the time it arose, the person must be registered once the person has been an accountable person for 28 days. In these cases, the registration information must be submitted at least 14 days prior to the date on which the accountable person must be registered.

An ADI must notify APRA within 14 days after the event of a person ceasing to be an accountable person of the ADI or subsidiary of the ADI.
